The arrest of "Liverpool Jack" in New York leads to the discovery that a species of white slavery has been carried on through this man. His office was to get workers under the influence of liquor, possibly drug them, and then have them sign an agreement to serve a contractor company in Yucatan. When the victims awoke from their stupor they found themselves on board ship miles at sea and bound.

Under authority given by the General Court of the colony, to follow and punish the savages to the bitter end in retaliation for their cruelties. At daybreak on the 26th of May, 1637, twenty sword in hand, he fell upon the first fort and set fire to the wigwams, the allies encircling the place and preventing the escape of the Indians. Between 600 and 700 of the savages were thus killed, while Mason lost two men and had twenty wounded.

He then retired to the mouth of Pequot river, and met his vessels with reinforcements. Here the Indians from the second fort attacked him, but he repulsed them, with slight loss to his hand and disaster to the enemy. Putting his wounded on board the vessels, he drove over into New York, where most of them were killed and the remainder taken prisoners. These were divided up among the Mohegans and Narragansetts, and it was stipulated with them that even the name of Pequot should become extinct.

Under Mason, therefore, a handful of whites literally exterminated a large tribe of ferocious Indians, who were the terror of the whole country and a menace to all life and property, and with whom it was impossible to treat. But after the final battle described a treaty of peace was made with all the tribes of New England, that remained unbroken for forty years.

Mason's achievements made him the great hero of the northeast, and he was everywhere looked up to as the savior of the country. He was made Major of the Colonial forces, an office he held for thirty years, and which was the highest military title of the time. His salary was but $200 a year, but on this he lived, and by his industry made such addition to it that he was enabled to maintain the position of a gentleman of the time, and to give due attention to the military defense of the section. He was also Indian Agent, Indian umpire, and the counselor of the Government in all Indian affairs, Captain of the fort, Justice of the Peace, and Court Judge, a member of the Connecticut Legislature and the Board of Commissioners of the United Colonies.

MORE STREET RAILROADS.

THE CITY TRUSTEES GRANT NEW FRANCHISES TO R. S. CAREY.

But Stand the Central Railway People Off—Another Week—The Burns Slough Canal and Other Matters.

The City Trustees met yesterday morning, Mayor Gregory and Trustees McLaughlin and Wolf being present.

The report submitted by Chief Engineer Williams of the Water Works showed that during the past week 30,175,000 gallons of water had been pumped, the Holly pump working 145 hours, and the Stevens ninety-six hours.

THE DRAINAGE CANAL.

Mrs. A. B. F. Knanner, through her attorneys, Taylor & Hall, presented a petition in which she stated that she owned a block of land between Thirtieth and Thirty-first X and Y streets, and that the drainage canal ran past her property. She objected to the present foul condition of the canal, and considered that its presence considerably diminished the value of her property, which was dangerous to travelers not having funds to pay, and took up a considerable portion of the road surface. She petitioned the Board to take steps to either fill in the canal, or brick it over.

It was said that similar complaints had come before the Board, but that it was the intention of the city to cover up the canal as speedily as possible.

A. M. Cooke appeared and asked what the Board was doing to do regard to abating the nuisance created by the foul and filthy matter that was running through the thirty-first-street canal. He wanted a definite answer from the Trustees, and if they could not take any action in the matter, the property owners were going to present their claims before the Courts.

The Mayor said that they would try and endeavor to abate the nuisance and Mr. Cooke left with what intention is not known.

RAILROAD FRANCHISES ASKED FOR.

R. T. Devlin, in behalf of the Central Street Railway Company, appeared before the Board, and after reciting the success which the company had made in the city, its popularity, he asked that they be given another franchise on Nineteenth street, from J to G, in order that they may run their cars through the Park during fair time. Also, that all of their other franchises be embodied in one, so that he will be given the right to operate their road by either electric power, cable or horse or mule power, and other franchises required them to run the road by horse power, as they had been given eighteen months during which time they would be allowed to operate their lines with horses, it is understood that the deceased owned a ranch or two in this country.

The Fire Commissioners Insist That No Water Be Used During a Fire.

Krebs & Co., $2 50; Charles Ott, Jr., $2 50; C. A. Fisk, $1 50; McCellan & Baird, $1 50; A. Friend & Son, $1 50; E. Greer, $1 50; Lander Bros., $2 50; P. Peter, $1 20; A. Fliehr, 30 cents; Thomas P. Morris, $1 20; Wm. M. Mead, 75 cents; A. & A. Heilbron, 50 cents; A. S. Hopkins & Br., $1 40; Neenborg & Lages, $1 35; Fire and Water Journal, $3 10; H. A. Kirk, Geary & Co., $3 25; Christopher Bros., $1 45; M. McElaney, $1 10; M. O' Meara, Jr., $1 50; and Jacob Gerber, $1 33.

The attention of the Board was called to the condition of the water supply in the outskirts of town, and the same was discussed at length. It was the unanimous opinion of the Board that the mains were not sufficient for proper use, but this was not the case, the city having more than enough water to supply the entire population.

Motion of Director Martin, the gift was accepted and the Secretary instructed to express to the donors the thanks of the city.

[The flag is 12 by 8 feet, and generally used at parades.]

The Principal of the night school reported an average attendance of 21 pupils, and it was ordered that the school be continued in session until July 1st.

PATENT SIDEWALKS.

Bids were next opened for laying stone sidewalks on Sixteenth and K streets, as follows: James McFetzel, $1 25 per pair (four-foot); and $40 for pine top, John F. Slater, white oak, $7 50 per pine cord; G. M. Maxfield, white oak, $7 50 per cord; Robert, $7 50; J. H. Smith, $7 50 per cord.

The contract was awarded to G. Maxfield for both oak and pine.

A Sad Tale.

A. P. Up a few days ago climbed up into the dome of the State Capitol in order to get the benefit of such refreshing zephyrs as might be passing over the city. The surrounding scene was picturesque indeed, but being of short stature he concluded to improve his range of vision by jumping the fence which formed the base of the large pillars of the dome. In the course of thefeat, however, he lost his balance and fell from the top of the dome to the roof of the building and was horribly crushed.

Alas! every bone in his body was broken, and the poor animal lay there, dying, for some time afterwards by Janitor Landsborough, when the latter went out to see what had happened on the building. The funerals took place, however, and all respectable canines will attend.

The Big Brother Interfered.

A. Platt was tried and convicted in the Police Court yesterday of committing battery upon a person of S. Quinn, Quinn, it appears from the record, quarreled with Platt's younger brother on Friday morning on account of the latter's habit of riding his bicycle on the sidewalk.

Younger Platt went home and told his parents he had been "big brother." They caught him, and the "big brother" laid on the gutter with a left-hand Quinn, instead of demolishing his assailant, had acted like a man. The Platt boys testified that Quinn struck the boy, but Judge Buckley could not be convinced that this was the case, and ordered the defendant to appear to-day for sentence.

He Made a Bad Guess.

George Holmes, last night entered a second-hand clothing store and informed the proprietor that he had two suits of underclothing which he wished to dispose of. He unrolled his bundle and told Mr. and he had—instead of two suits of undergarments there were five pairs of new drawers, Mr. Holmes was puzzled for a moment, and then tried to make out that the two officers Harvey and Agnew—who had been spectators of the affair—stepped in at the city express to get rid of their drawers. The tank down upon them. Late at night it was learned that the drawers were stolen from Zemansky's store at Third and J streets.

No Wonder They Were Beaten.

The Alta of yesterday says of the ball game on Sunday in that city between the San Francisco and Sacramento clubs: "The uprising of Eugene Van Court was simply disgusting. He favored the local team, and when he saw that the game was in his power to prevent the Sacramento from winning," it would seem as if something must be lacking in the League rules if the part of the umpire. In many instances ourtours of this kind are promptly settled by a Board of Judges, but in baseball the umpire seems to have autocratic power.

The Little Shooters.

At last Sunday's target-shooting by Company B the following scores were made at the 200-yard range: Captain Cook, 38; Corporal Kelly, 37; private Klips, 41; private Strange, 38; private Craver, 34; private Deane, 40; private Nathan, 21; private Hodge, 40; private Richmond, 38.

Not South San Francisco.

In the reference in yesterday's issue to recent real estate transactions in this vicinity, "South San Francisco" was inadvertently written for "South Sacramento." It is not at all likely, however, that any of our home readers was misled by the mistake.

Banner for the Pioneers.

A number of the lady relatives of members of the Pioneer Society have combined to secure a banner and banner, which will be presented to the Society on Friday evening, next, at the latter's hall.

INSTANTLY KILLED.

An Old Man Has His Head Crushed by the Placerille Train.

Yesterday afternoon at about 2:30 o'clock a man was run over by the passenger train from Placerille at Twenty-second and R streets, and instantly killed. His body was not horribly mangled as is usually the case, but a fracture of the skull was probably the immediate cause of death. After the accident the train stopped and the body was hauled into the city and placed in charge of Coroner Clark.

An inquest was held last evening on the remains and the jury found that the name of the deceased was Charles Delargy, a native of Ireland, between 70 and 80 years of age.

The engineer was fully exonerated from all blame in the matter.

Frigid George Hanford was the only one on the train that was not present. He described it as follows: "The train was nearing Twenty-second street, when I saw a man leave the fence on the north side of the track and walk directly out on the air-line. I called to the man, who stopped, but the man was such a short distance away that the train could not be stopped in time to save the man. The police officer shot him in the face before he was hauled into the city.

Engineer James W. Hanford testified to the same facts, although he did not see the man advance towards the track. He was not in a position to do so, as he had been killed by the cars. It is understood that the deceased owned a ranch or two in this country.

"AN HONEST MAN."

Judge Buckley is Affected, But Chief Lee Spoils the Romance.

"Judge, your Honor, I'm an honest man. I never stole anything in my life. I can bring witnesses to prove that I am honest. I was crazy when I committed this act, but, Judge, you're my word, I didn't mean to steal anything."

This was delivered in a whining voice by a seedy and miserable-looking creature named George Taylor, who stood in the police court's office of Police Judge Buckley's Court yesterday charged with taking a platoon belonging to Frank Duley on Wednesday, and trading it off for an old car to Bob Kent for a consideration of $12. Buckley was in a forgiving frame of mind, but was still inclined to believe that his oratory had touched his Honor's sympathetic heart. But as usual Justice got the best of the proceedings. The Judge, however, just as he was preparing to announce Taylor's discharge, when Chief of Police Lee kicked City Attorney Church on the shin, and whispered to him that he was to be sent to jail.

Director Martin moved that the theaters be engaged in which to hold the annual meeting, and the school.

Director Skelton, from the Committee on Repairs, reported that various repairs had been made to the school-houses, trees and shrubs, etc. He also reported that a new fence was put up in front of the Seventh and G-street school.

Director Martin moved to purchase the Annuals of the American Encyclopedia, to bring the price down to $10 each.

SAN FRANCISCO NEWS.

Arrest for Arson—Watch Thief Captured—Fatal shooting Match.

Sam Johnson, a young man, went into Lippman's jewelry store at 511 Kearny street, about noon yesterday, and asked to see some watches. Several were placed on the counter for him to look over, and he wished to see more. When the clock was going for them, Johnson placed one of the watches in his pocket and ran away. He was arrested and charged with petty larceny. A Market woman identified him as the man who had played the same game with him, and an additional charge of grand larceny was placed against him.

ARRESTED FOR ARSON.

William Brittan, whose home at 1032 Twenty-second street was set fire to by a man by District Engineer Kennard and booked at the Seventeenth-street police station on a charge of arson. The arrest was made in the instance of his son, who said they had been staying with him and his wife at Medical Lake, he got on the road with the private car occupied by the road officials, with a friend. It is alleged that a negro named L. C. Jackson, of the De Casanova family, was the man who set the car on fire, and that the Comte de Jolibois and Pion.

It is not surprising considering that the man in question is a negro, that he should be the man who set the car on fire, as the private car occupied by the road officials, with a friend. The Right endeavor to suggest a remedy for the evils they point out, and the Right believe that the work to be done is to cut away the diseased republic, those being ample time and opportunity to discuss the later treatment.

This is the opinion daily by the newspapers that represent the opinion or opinions of the Union of Rights people, but no hint of this is given in the manifesto. It is not a mere word or phrase which can be attributed to me that the authors of the document have any desire to overthrow the republic. They even appeal to sincere Republicans to join their ranks, and content themselves with the statement that the Constitution shall be revised.

The Editor of the "Cactus" Gets Himself Into Trouble.

Los Angeles, June 24th.—Quite a breeze was raised at the meeting of the City Council.

on to-day. City Attorney McFarland handed in an opinion on the petition of the labor organizations to avoid contract labor on the proposed building of the sewers, in which it decides against the petitioners. Carl Browne, of the Cactus, received a scathing rebuke from McFarland, severely, when McFarland called Browne a blackmailer and a liar. In turn Browne referred to McFarland as a blatherskite. Both men are well educated and were relating close to each other, when a member of the Council put a stop to the proceedings. It is highly probable the men will come together this afternoon, when trouble is expected.
